PORTLAND :

PRINTED BY THOMAS TODD & CO. PRINTERS TO THE STATE.

1821.

shall be the dividing line between the towns of Bucksport and Orrington, namely : beginning on the east bank of Penobscot river at the south western corner of School lot, so called, on the proprietors plan of township number one east of Penobscot river ; thence running on the southern line of said lot, to the eastern end of the same ; thence across a gore of land to the south western corner of lot number eighteen on the second range of lots ; thence on the southern line of said lot to the third range line ; thence southerly on said range line to the southwest corner of lot number forty-two on the third range of lots ; thence easterly on the southern line of said lot, to the western line of the fourth range of lots ; thence northerly on said range line to the southwestern corner of lot number fifty-four ; thence on the southerly line of said lot, to the eastern line of the fourth range of lots ; thence northerly on said range line to Brewer's pond ; thence following the westerly shore of said pond till it intersects the old line which formerly divided the towns of Bucksport and Orrington. And all that part of township number one, which lies northerly and westerly of said line shall belong and be a part of Orrington, and the residue of said township, as laid out by the proprietors, shall be within the limits of Bucksport.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal or alter any of the provisions of the second, third and fourth sections of an Act which passed the General Court of Massachusetts, entitled an Act to set off part of the town of Buckstown and annex the same to Orrington.

[This Act passed February 28, 1821.]

CHAPTER LII.

AN ACT concerning the Eastern River Lock and Sluice Company.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That a further time of two years from and after the thirteenth day of December next, shall be allowed to the Eastern River Lock and Sluice Company, within which to erect and complete any Lock or Locks, Sluice or Sluices, which they were empowered so to erect and complete, by an Act of the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, passed the thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixteen, without forfeiting their charter or losing any powers, privileges or immunities granted them by said Act.

[This Act passed March 2, 1821.]
