CHAPTER XIII.

Resolve making valid the doings of Plantation No. one in the County of Oxford.
February 19, 1821.

ON the Petition of the Inhabitants of Plantation No. one, setting forth that certain errors and defects existed in the doings of said Plantation; that the warrant for the first meeting of the Inhabitants was lost, and never recorded; that the qualifying of the officers is supposed to be informal; and that some assessments of taxes are supposed to be not strictly conformably to law:

Resolved, That the doings of Plantation No. one, at the several meetings above mentioned, be, and are hereby made valid in law, any of the errors and defects aforesaid notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XIV.

Resolves requiring Justices of the Peace to account for fines and forfeitures.
February 24, 1821.

Resolved, That every Justice of the Peace within this State, who has received any fines or forfeitures within the last six years, and has neglected to pay over the same as required by law; and shall fail to pay over the same, on or before the first day of October next, shall forfeit and pay double the amount so by him retained after that time, to be recovered by the County Treasurer, on action of debt, in his own name, for the benefit of said county, in any court competent to try the same.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of every such Justice to account on oath with the County Treasurer, for all such monies by him received and unaccounted for, for the last six years.

Resolved, That the several County Treasurers shall notify every
