CHAPTER XXIII.

Resolve appointing a Committee to establish the line between the towns of Bowdoinham and Bowdoin. March 8, 1821.

ON the petition of the inhabitants of the town of Bowdoin, praying that the Legislature will appoint a Committee to establish the line between the towns of Bowdoinham and Bowdoin :

Resolved, That Abel Merrill, Esquire, David Patten, and Actor Patten, second, Esquire, all of Topsham, be a committee, at the expenses of said towns, to establish the dividing line between those towns, being first sworn to the faithful discharge of their trust, and giving seasonable notice to all parties concerned, of the time and place of their meeting ; and it shall be the duty of said Committee, to describe the said boundary line by course and distance ; to set up, make and notice in their return, suitable marks and monuments with a view to the permanent establishment of said line ; and also make out triplicate returns of their doing, one of which shall be for the town of Bowdoin, one for the town of Bowdoinham, and shall forthwith be recorded by the town Clerks of those towns respectively, and the other copy returned to the Secretary of this State ; and the line so marked, returned and described, shall be the dividing line between said towns.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Resolve authorizing the Board of Jurisprudence to superintend the publication of the Laws. March 8, 1821.

Resolved, That the Board of Jurisprudence, be, and they are hereby authorized to superintend and direct the printing of the laws revised at the present Session of the Legislature, and to prefix thereto the Constitution of the United States, and of this State, classifying and arranging the whole, as to them may appear most convenient ; and combining therewith, such of the laws of the last Session and the present Session, as are of a general nature ; the whole to be accompanied with a suitable index, marginal abstracts, references, and table of contents. And the said Board are hereby further empowered and directed to insert in an appendix to the said edition, such parts of the laws, by which the several Counties in this State have been enacted, and their boundaries determined, as to them may appear necessary ; and also such other Statutes or parts of Statutes, revised, or not revised, as in their judgment may be useful and expedient.
