CHAPTER X.

Resolve for reducing the number of Polls in the valuation of Monroe.

Resolved, That there be, and hereby are deducted thirty polls from the valuation of the town of Monroe, in the County of Hancock, in all the public taxes hereafter to be assessed, during the continuance of the present State valuation.

[This Resolve passed January 25, 1822.]

CHAPTER XI.

Resolve providing for the Promulgation and Distribution of the Laws and Resolves, which are or may be passed by the present Legislature.

Resolved, That the editions of the Laws of the State, printed or to be printed by the authority thereof, which have been, or may be enacted by the present Legislature, be distributed by the Secretary of State in the following manner, to wit:—To the Clerk of each town or plantation which pays a State Tax, one copy, for the use of such town or plantation; to each Clerk of the Judicial Courts of this State, one copy, for the use of their respective counties; to each Judge of the Supreme Judicial Court, one copy; to the Judges of Probate and County Treasurers in the several Counties, one copy each, for the use of their respective offices in said Counties; to the Sheriffs of the several Counties, one copy each; to each Gaoler, one copy; to the Attorney General, and to the several County Attornies, one copy each; for the use of the Secretary and Treasurer's office, one copy; one copy to the Library of Congress; one copy to the Legislatures of each of the United States; one copy to the Governor and each member of the Council, Senate and House of Representatives of the present Legislature, and one copy each to the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Be it further resolved, That upon the death, resignation, or removal from office, of either of the Clerks of the aforesaid towns and plantations, or Courts of Law, Judges of Probate, County Treasurers, Sheriff, Gaoler, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Attorney General, County Attornies, each of them respectively, his Executors and Administrators, shall be held and obliged to deliver over the same copy, which shall have been received as aforesaid, to his and their successors in office, for the use of their respective offices.

Be it further resolved, That the Statute Laws and Resolves of a public nature, passed by the present Legislature, shall be published in the Eastern Argus, a newspaper printed in Portland. And that the said Eastern Argus be, and the same is hereby declared to be the public newspaper in this State, in which all advertisements, notices, or orders shall be printed and published, that are or may be by law required to be printed or published in the public newspaper of the printer to the State. And that the printers of the Eastern Argus and of such other newspapers, printed in this State, who shall publish the Statute Laws and Resolves of a public nature, passed by the present Legislature, shall severally receive therefor, the sum of twelve dollars.

[This Resolve passed January 28, 1822.]

CHAPTER XII.

Resolve in amendment of, and in addition to a Resolve apportioning the Representatives on the several Counties, Towns, Plantations and Classes, on the first apportionment.

Resolved, That in amendment of, and in addition to a Resolve "apportioning the Representatives on the several Counties, Towns, Plantations and Classes on the first apportionment," passed March twenty second, 1821, that plantation No. 14, in the County of Hancock, being by the Resolve aforesaid, included in two classes for the choice of Representatives, shall be entitled to vote only with the towns of Surry, Ellsworth, Trenton, and Mariaville; that plantation No. 1, in 3d Range, in the County of Penobscot, which, by said Resolve, is not, by that name and descrip-
