of the ordnance and military stores between the States of Massachusetts and Maine, will be effected before the 16th of March next, I transmit their communication for the information of the Legislature, and suggest the expediency of making provision for the preservation of such portion thereof as shall fall to the share of this State.

ALBION K. PARRIS:

Council Chamber, Feb. 4, 1822.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Resolve respecting the Military Stores of the State.

Resolved, That the Governor, with the advice and consent of Council, be authorized to take all measures that may be necessary for procuring, transporting and preserving the military stores and ordnance in the arsenals of Massachusetts, belonging to this State, and to sell and dispose of such part of such ordnance and military stores, as he may deem proper; and may order to be distributed to the several Artillery Companies in the State, such part of the powder and military stores aforesaid as may be necessary.

[This Resolve passed February 8, 1822.]

CHAPTER XXXII.

Resolve on the petition of Nancy Bucknam, administratrix.

Whereas it has been made to appear to this Legislature, that Nancy Bucknam, administratrix of the goods and estate of Jeremiah Bucknam, late of Columbia, in the County of Washington, on the fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirteen, by order of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, sold all the real estate of said Jeremiah Bucknam, with the reversion of the widow's dower, and deeded the same to Thomas Ruggles Esq. without having taken the oath required by law to be taken by administrators previous to the sale of real estate :

Resolved, That the doings of said Nancy Bucknam, in the sale of the estate and the execution of the deed aforesaid, notwithstanding said oath was not taken, and any informality which may be in said deed, be, and the same are hereby made valid in law to all intents and purposes.

[This Resolve passed February 8, 1822.]

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Resolve in favor of certain Clergymen.

Resolved, That there be paid out of the Treasury of this State to the Rev. Elijah Kellogg, Chaplain of the Senate, twenty five dollars; and to Elijah Kellogg, Joshua Taylor, Edward Payson, Ichabod Nichols, Thomas B. Ripley, Petrus S. Ten Broeck, Russell Streeter and David Kilbourn, Chaplains of the House of Representatives, five dollars each, in full for their services during the present Session of the Legislature; and that the Governor, with advice of Council, be requested to draw his warrant on the Treasury for the same.

[This Resolve passed February 8, 1822.]

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Resolve authorizing William G. Warren and Remember Goodwin to convey certain real estate.

On the petition of Timothy White, of Hallowell, in the County of Kennebec, praying that the administrators upon the goods and estate of James Goodwin, late of said Hallowell, yeoman, deceased, may be authorized to convey to said White certain real estate :

Resolved, for reasons set forth in the petition aforesaid, That William G. Warren and Remember Goodwin, Administrators upon the goods and estate of said James Goodwin, deceased, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by deed under their hands and seals, to convey
