MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR.

To the Senate and House of Representatives :

Previous to the recent execution at Castine, upon the application of the Sheriff of the county of Hancock, a military company was ordered out by the Major General of the third Division to act as a guard on that occasion. The Roll of those who performed the duty has been transmitted to me and is herewith laid before the Legislature.

From inquiry into the case, I am fully satisfied that the services of this company were necessary, and would, therefore, suggest the propriety of making provision for their payment.

ALBION K. PARRIS.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, }
FEBRUARY 14, 1825. }
