RESOLVES

OF THE

SIXTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

PASSED AT THE SESSION

WHICH COMMENCED ON THE FOURTH DAY OF JANUARY, AND ENDED ON THE EIGHTH DAY OF MARCH, ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX.

PUBLISHED AGREEABLY TO THE RESOLVE OF THE 20th JUNE, 1820.

Portland:

PRINTED BY THOMAS TODD.....PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1826.

CHAPTER VIII.

Resolve respecting plans and papers.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to communicate to his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the desire of the Legislature of the State of Maine, that the plans and surveys of such towns as, upon the separation of Maine from Massachusetts, are situate in Maine, taken pursuant to a Resolve of the 26th June, 1794, the surveys and plans of such of the public lands as have been divided and assigned to Maine, and copies of all papers, surveys and plans relating to roads in Maine, explored or laid out under the authority of said Commonwealth, and now remaining in the public offices of Massachusetts, may be furnished to the State of Maine, to be preserved in the proper public offices in this State.

[Approved by the Governor, January 31, 1826.]

CHAPTER IX.

Resolve authorizing the conveyance of a Gun House in Fryeburg.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be, and he hereby is authorized to make and execute, in behalf of this State, a good and sufficient deed to Abel Gibson, of all the right and title of said State, to a gun-house belonging thereto, situated in Fryeburg, in the county of Oxford, together with the land upon which said gun-house now stands, and the appurtenances thereto belonging : Provided, the said Abel Gibson shall first make and execute, to the State, a good and sufficient deed of a lot of land in Brownfield, in said county of Oxford, on which said Gibson has lately erected a gun-house, for the use of the State, together with said gun-house, and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

[Approved by the Governor, January 31, 1826.]

CHAPTER X.

Resolve relating to Mark Hand Island.

Resolved, That the Land Agent of this State be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to release by deed, to Anthony Merchant, or his assigns, all the right, title and interest which this State hath, or is supposed to have, to one hundred acres of land, being a part of the Island, called Mark Hand Island, otherwise Merchant's Island, in the county of Hancock, to be laid out so as best to include said Merchant's improvements, he or they paying to said Agent a reasonable compensation for all the trouble and expense of laying out said land, and of making and executing such release ; and also paying to said Agent the sum of five dollars for the use of the state.

[Approved by the Governor, January 31, 1826.]

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR.

To the Senate and House of Representatives :

The Adjutant General having reported the resignation of Major General Turner, of the Fourth Division, and the same having been accepted, I now make known to the two branches of the Legislature that the office of Major General of the Fourth Division of the Militia of this State is vacant.

ALBION K. PARRIS.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, }
FEBRUARY 2, 1826. }

CHAPTER XI.

Resolve in favor of the town of Maxfield.

Whereas the laws and reports of the town of Maxfield, in the county of Penobscot, have been lost by fire : Resolved, That the said town of Maxfield be furnished by the Secretary of State, with a set of the Statutes, Resolves and Judicial Reports of this State.

[Approved by the Governor, February 6, 1826.]

CHAPTER XII.

Resolve in favor of the heirs of Joseph Allen.

On the petition of Lydia Allen, of Boston, in the county of Suffolk, widow, and others, heirs of Joseph Allen, late of said Boston, deceased, praying that some suitable person may be authorized and empowered to make sale and dispose of all the interest, which the said Joseph Allen had, at the time of
