CHAPTER CCCLXXXII.

An additional ACT concerning Foreign Attachment.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That, from and after the passage of this Act, in all actions, where any person or persons shall be summoned as trustee or trustees, such trustee or trustees who shall appear at the first term and disclose, shall be entitled to costs in the same manner as parties in civil actions who have an issue joined for trial. And any person or persons so adjudged trustee or trustees may deduct from the goods and effects of such debtor in his or her hands and possession, the amount of such costs. And where such trustee or trustees shall be so adjudged trustee for specific articles in his or her hands and possession, he shall have a lien on the same for his costs ; and it shall be the duty of the officer who shall sell or dispose of such specific articles, on execution, on such judgment, to pay to such trustee or trustees, on the sale thereof, the amount due to him, her or them for costs, and deduct the same from the amount of such sale before he shall pay the balance thereof to the creditor or creditors. And the certificate of the Clerk on the margin of the execution, shall be evidence to the officer of the amount of such lien.

Persons summoned as Trustees entitled to costs ;

may deduct same from effects in their hands ;

may have a lien on specific articles.

Certificate of Clerk to be evidence of amount.
