CHAPTER CCCCXCVII.

AN ACT additional to An Act to incorporate the Proprietors of North Turner Bridge.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That the said Proprietors be, and they hereby are, authorized and empowered to erect said bridge over the Androscoggin river, at an Island in said river about one hundred rods below Stephen's ferry, (so called,) where the county road crosses said river, so as to connect said county road on the west bank of said river, in the north part of Turner, in the county of Oxford, with land on the east side of said river, owned by Ambrose Brown, of Leeds, in the county of Kennebec, any thing in the act to which this is additional, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Place at which the bridge shall be located, established.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That the rates of toll established in said Act, to which this is additional, shall not be diminished at any time within twenty years from the passage of said Act.

Rates of toll not to be altered until after a certain time.

[Approved by the Governor, January 28, 1828.]
