RESOLVES

OF THE

EIGHTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

PASSED AT THE SESSION

WHICH COMMENCED ON THE SECOND DAY OF JANUARY, AND ENDED
ON THE TWENTY-SIXTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHT.

Published agreeably to the Resolve of the 20th June, 1820.

PORTLAND.

PRINTED BY THOMAS TODD.....PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1828.

CHAPTER XII.

Resolve additional to a Resolve respecting certain settlers of the Public Lands, passed the twenty fifth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.

Resolved, That all the powers and authority given to the Land Agent by the Resolve to which this is additional, and all the rights and privileges granted to the settlers therein named, be, and the same are hereby, extended to the first Wednesday of January, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine, and no longer, subject however to the conditions and restrictions contained in the Resolve aforesaid.

[Approved by the Governor, January 31, 1828.]

STATE OF MAINE.

IN SENATE, Jan. 15, 1828.

The Committee of both Houses, to whom was referred so much of the Governor's Speech as relates to the location of the Seat of Government and for providing Public Buildings, and the documents relating thereto, have had the same under consideration, and REPORT :—

That pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the last Legislature, fixing the place of the permanent Seat of Government and prescribing where the Legislature shall hold its sessions, the Governor and Council held a session at Augusta, in June last, and after having viewed several sites in that town, came to the conclusion and determination to select the lot called Capitol Hill or Weston's Lot, as the most suitable lot on which the Public Buildings might be erected, and gave notice of their determination to the citizens of Augusta, who thereupon caused said lot to be conveyed to the State by a good and sufficient deed executed and delivered, which deed was unanimously accepted by the Governor and Council, caused to be registered, and is now in the office of the Secretary of State ; and measures have been adopted by the Executive, and nearly carried into effect, to cause this lot to be fenced and ornamented with forest trees, as far as could be done by the appropriation made for that object.

It may be proper for the Committee to add for the information of the Legislature, that the lot now selected and accepted by the Governor and Council is the same which was selected by a Committee of the Legislature in 1822, and referred to in their Report accepted by the Legislature in 1823, as the most
