CCCCXV.

AN ACT enlarging the powers of Constables in the town of Eastport.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That any constable in the town of Eastport, in the county of Washington, be, and hereby is authorized and empowered to serve upon any person or persons in said town, any writ, summons or execution to him duly directed, in any personal action where the damage sued for or recovered shall not exceed five hundred dollars, including all processes in which said town is or may be interested, and return thereof to make to the Court to which the same may be returnable. Provided however, That every such constable, before he serve any such process, shall give to the Treasurer of said town a bond, in the sum of two thousand dollars with sureties, sufficient in the opinion of the Selectmen for the faithful performance of his duties : and for every process he shall serve or execute before giving such bond, he shall forfeit and pay not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction to the use of any person who shall sue therefor ; and all persons suffering through the defaults or misdoings of such Constable shall have the same remedies on his bond, as are provided in respect to Sheriffs' bonds, and the like proceedings in both cases shall be had, such variations being made, as will make the process effectual.

Constables in Eastport may serve writs, &c. where the demands do not exceed 500 dollars.

Provided said Constables give bond, &c.

Remedies for default, &c. of such officers, same as on Sheriffs' bonds.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That whenever the Sheriff of said County, shall appoint any inhabitant of said town, a Deputy Sheriff, he shall give public notice thereof immediately by inserting the name or names of the person or persons thus appointed in one of the newspapers published in said town ; and from and after said appointment, and the publication thereof as aforesaid, the powers given to constables in said town by this Act shall cease.

Powers to cease on appointment of a Deputy Sheriff in Eastport.

[Approved by the Governor, February 13, 1829.]
