CHAP. 29.

AN ACT incorporating the Waldo Agricultural Society.

Approved February 18, 1829.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That Philip Morrill, James White, William Crosby, William Salmond, Ephraim T. Morrill, William Barns, Joseph P. Ladd, Aaron Holbrook, Ralph C. Johnson, Benjamin Hazeltine, David Whittier, Nathaniel H. Bradbury, their associates and successors, be, and hereby are constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Waldo Agricultural Society; with power by that name to prosecute and defend suits at law; to have and use a common seal; to make by-laws and regulations for the management of their affairs, not repugnant to the laws of the State; to take, hold, and possess, any estate real or personal, the yearly income of which shall not exceed three thousand dollars, to be used exclusively for the promotion and improvement of agriculture, manufactures and the mechanic arts; and said corporation shall have power to sell or lease the same at their discretion; and for the purposes aforesaid, shall have and exercise all the powers and privileges usually granted to similar corporations.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That the powers granted by this Act, may be enlarged, restricted or annulled at the pleasure of the Legislature.

SECT. 3. Be it further enacted, That the first meeting of said corporation, may be called in such manner, and at such time and place as may be determined by a majority of the persons herein named.
