CHAP. 84.

AN ACT ceding to the United States the Jurisdiction of a certain tract of land in the town of Boothbay.

Approved March 8, 1830.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That there be, and hereby is ceded to the United States, the jurisdiction of a lot of land containing nine acres and twenty rods, situated in the town of Boothbay, for the purpose of erecting thereon light-houses, and any other buildings which may be found expedient by the government of the United States; said lot is bounded as follows, viz. beginning at a stake and stones standing on the bank of the bay on the westerly part of the cove, on the southeasterly side of Hendrick's head, so called; thence north twenty degrees west eleven rods to a stake and stones; thence north fifty degrees west to Sheepscott River, to a fir tree marked; thence southerly to the extreme part of said head, by the river; thence northerly, by the shore of the bay to the bounds first mentioned.

Boundaries of land ceded.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in, and over the territory described in this Act, and the houses, when erected, so far, as that all civil, military or criminal processes issued under the authority of this State, or any officer thereof, may be executed on any part of the said granted premises, or in any building that may be erected thereon, in the same way and manner as if the jurisdiction had not been ceded as aforesaid.

Concurrent jurisdiction, reserved.
