Portland.

TODD AND HOLDEN.....PRINTERS TO THE STATE.

1831.

held at the permanent seat of Government, this Legislature cannot close a long and arduous Session without an expression of their sense of the distinguished liberality which has heretofore secured to the State the necessary accommodations for the transaction of its public business—Therefore,

Resolved, That the Thanks of this Legislature be presented to the Citizens of Portland and the County of Cumberland for the use of the Public Buildings gratuitously, and generously furnished by them for the accommodation of the several departments of Government since the formation of this State into an Independent Sovereignty.

Resolved, That there be paid out of any of the unappropriated moneys in the Treasury to the Trustees of the Orphan Asylum in Portland, the sum of three hundred dollars to be applied by them in aid of the benevolent objects of said Institution, the proprietors thereof being owners of a large portion of the State House Stock, so called.

Resolved, That the furniture belonging to the various departments of the Government be tendered to the Trustees of the Orphan Asylum aforesaid, for the use of that establishment, and the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized from and after the first day of January next, to deliver the same to said Trustees.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR.

To the Senate and

House of Representatives :

A copy of a Resolve of the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in relation to the payment of that portion of the claim for the services of the Militia during the last war, to which this State is entitled, also a statement of the disbursements by Massachusetts in prosecuting said claim, and a Report of a Committee of the Council of that Commonwealth to whom the subject was referred, have been received at the office of the Secretary of State. By these documents it appears that the sum of twenty three thousand one hundred forty eight dollars and twenty six cents is retained by Massachusetts for expenses in prosecuting said claim, and one third part of the balance of three hundred ninety six thousand and six hundred dollars, amounting to
