course and distance, to set up and make suitable marks and monuments, and note the same in their return, and make out triplicate returns of their doings, one of which shall be lodged with the Clerk of the town of Brunswick, and one with the Clerk of the town of Freeport, which shall be immediately recorded by said Clerks respectively ; and the other copy shall be returned to the Secretary of State. And the line so marked, returned and described shall be the dividing line between said towns ; and all expenses of settling the same shall be borne equally by said towns.

Chapter 19.

Resolve in favor of Simon Loveit.

Approved February 16, 1832.

Resolved, That the Land Agent be and hereby is authorized to convey to Simon Loveit, a lot of land numbered four, in the third range of lots in the half township numbered one in the first range north of Bingham's lottery land, in the County of Penobscot ; he having paid the money required by a contract with a former Land Agent and performed the settling duties required by law.

Chapter 20.

Resolve for the relief of William Hilton Junior.

Approved February 16, 1832.

Resolved, That there be allowed and paid to William Hilton Junior, of Windsor one hundred dollars in full for his claim to be reimbursed the amount recovered, and the expenses of defending a suit, against him as surety ; upon a gaol bond, for Walter Dockendorf, who was discharged from prison upon taking the poor debtor's oath, at a time when the law for the relief of poor debtors was repealed and no substitute for it provided, and before that fact was made public, and while it was universally believed that a law for the relief of poor debtors was in force.
