spectively be holden at Alfred, in and for said County, upon the above-mentioned days, fixed by law for the holding of said terms respectively; any thing in any Act contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That all writs, warrants, complaints, executions, bills in equity, petitions, recognizances, orders, certificates, reports, and all processes of every kind, commenced for, pending in, or returnable to, either of said Courts, at the terms thereof to be holden at said town of York, next after the passing of this Act, shall be returned to, have day in, and be acted upon by, said Courts at their respective terms, next to be holden at Alfred, as provided in the first section of this Act.

Return of precept when
made.

[Approved by the Governor, February 20, 1833.]

Chapter 56.

AN ACT additional to an "Act respecting the collection of taxes on unimproved lands, not taxable by the Assessors of any town or plantation."

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That when any lands shall be sold, by virtue of a warrant from the Treasurer of the State or of any County, for the non-payment of State or County taxes, the person or persons, to whom the right of redemption belongs, shall be entitled to redeem the same, at any time within five years from said sale, by depositing with the Treasurer of the County, in which said land may lie, for the use of said purchaser, his executors, administrators or assigns, a sum equal to the amount of said tax, for which the land was assessed, and the necessary charges of sale, and all taxes subsequently assessed on the same and paid by said purchaser, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, together with twelve per cent. interest on said sums.

Persons whose lands are sold
for Taxes may redeem the same at any time within five
years from the sale.
