Chapter 89.

AN ADDITIONAL ACT regulating Elections.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That the Selectmen of the several towns in this State having more than three thousand inhabitants by the last census, shall have power to be in session for the purpose of receiving evidence of the qualifications of the electors of State officers in said town, and correcting the list thereof, for a time not exceeding two days, the last of which two days shall be at least two days previous to the twentieth day of August annually, the time and place of said session to be notified in the same manner, that town meetings are required to be notified in said town. And the Selectmen of such towns are required to be in session for the purpose of correcting the list of electors, on the Friday and Saturday next preceding the second Monday of September annually, and are also required to give notice of the time and place of such session in the warrant for summoning the meeting to be held for the choice of State officers on said second Monday of September: and the provisions of this Act shall extend and be applicable to the city of Portland.

[Approved by the Governor, March 4, 1833.]
