CHAPTER 363.

AN ADDITIONAL ACT to incorporate the Penobscot Mill Dam Company.

Approved March 2, 1833.

Fish-ways to be constructed of such dimensions as may be prescribed by the Fishwardens of the Counties of Penobscot, Hancock and Waldo.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That the fish-ways required in the fifth Section of the Act to which this is additional, passed the twelfth day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, shall be made and constructed of such size and dimensions as may be prescribed by the six standing Fishwardens of the Counties of Penobscot, Hancock and Waldo, or a majority of them. And if the owners of said dams shall, after six months notice in writing from a majority of said Fishwards, specifying the manner in which said fish-ways are to be constructed, refuse or neglect to open and make such fish-ways accordingly, it shall be lawful for such Fishwards or a majority of them to make such fish-ways, and shall recover the expense thereof in an action of the case against said owners.
