separate and independent State," and of the surveys made by their order, the journals, documents and papers relating to their proceedings, be deposited in the Land Office of the State of Maine in the State House in Augusta, to be there safely kept under the care of the Land Agents of Massachusetts and Maine, subject to the joint order of the two States.

Chapter 21.

Resolve for the benefit of Heman Nye.

Approved February 9, 1833.

Resolved, That instead of the monthly sum, now allowed to Heman Nye, on account of an injury sustained by him in the performance of military duty, there shall be allowed to him a pension of Four Dollars per month, payable out of the Treasury of the State annually, to be computed from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty three, and continue during the pleasure of the Legislature.

Chapter 22.

Resolve in favor of the Warden of the State Prison.

Approved February 10, 1833.

Resolved, That the Governor, with advice of Council, be authorized to draw his warrants on the Treasury, in favor of the Warden of the State Prison, for such sums as may be thought proper, not exceeding Seven Thousand Dollars, to meet such liabilities as said Warden may have incurred, for the use of said Prison, in consequence of not having received the amounts due on account of the notes given to him by Ira Norris and Foster Bryant; and that said Warden be, and he hereby is, required to pay into the Treasury all sums he may receive on account of said notes, until the amount so advanced therefrom with interest shall be refunded.
