Chapter 101.

AN ACT in addition to an act, regulating Judicial Process.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That whenever any civil process shall have been served, returnable before any Justice of the Peace within this State, and at the time appointed for the trial, said Justice, by reason of sickness or other cause, shall be unable to attend, at the place appointed for the holding of the Court, any Justice of the Peace, for the same county, who could legally try a cause between the parties, may, at the time and place of trial, continue such cause to some time, when, in his opinion, the Justice of the Peace who signed the writ will be able to attend. Provided always, that the same pleas may be pleaded and the same proceedings had, after continuance of said cause as above provided, as if said cause had not been continued. And provided also, that said cause shall not be continued by such Justice more than once, nor for a longer period of time than thirty days.
And such Justice, at the time of such continuance, shall enter on the files, the reasons therefor under his official signature.

When Justice of the Peace is unable to attend at the time and place of trial of a cause, any Justice of the Peace may continue such cause.

Proviso.

Not to be continued more than thirty days, and reasons to be entered on the files.

[Approved by the Governor, February 15, 1834.]
