Chapter 182.

AN ACT regulating costs in the Judicial Courts in certain cases and reducing the fees of Clerks of the Judicial Courts.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That the costs to be taxed in the Supreme Judicial Court in all actions entered originally in that Court shall be the same as is or may be by law allowed in the Court of Common Pleas.

Costs in Supreme Court to be the same as in C. C. Pleas.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That hereafter, instead of the fees now established in the cases hereinafter named, the fees of Clerks in those cases shall be as follows, viz:—For the entry of an action or complaint, entering up and recording the judgment, whether on a verdict, demurrer, nonsuit, default, or statement of facts and taxing costs, shall be sixty cents—every blank writ of scire facias, or original summons, or attachment, eight cents. An original or alias writ of execution in personal matters, and filing the same when returned, fifteen cents—every original or alias writ of possession, twenty-five cents.

Fees of Clerks established.

SECT. 3. Be it further enacted, That all Acts and parts of Acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Parts of former Acts repealed.

[Approved by the Governor, March 23, 1835.]
