said manufactures—and, for these purposes, may hold and manage real and personal estate, not exceeding at any one time, three hundred thousand dollars, and may alienate the same at pleasure—and said corporation shall have all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the requirements and duties of similar corporations in this State. Provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall give to said corporation any power to interrupt the free navigation of said river, or in any manner injuriously to affect private rights.

Chapter 362.

AN ACT to incorporate the North Yarmouth Granite Company.

Approved March 28, 1837.

Corporators,

Corporate name.

Capital Stock,— $100,000.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That John Neal, Daniel Winslow, Albert Smith and Charles T. Mayer, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they hereby are created a corporation, by the name of the North Yarmouth Granite Company for the purpose of quarrying, manufacturing, and dealing in granite and other stone upon their own land in the town of North Yarmouth and of exporting the same to market; with power to hold and manage real and personal estate not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars. And said corporation shall be vested with all the powers and privileges, and be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities now in force by the existing laws of this State, relating to corporations and the provisions of an Act upon the same subject passed the sixteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.
