Chapter 392.

AN ACT respecting lumber in the Kenduskeag Stream.

Approved March 29, 1837.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That no person shall put into the Kenduskeag Stream in the County of Penobscot for the purpose of being driven to any mill, or market, any log, mast, spar, or other timber exceeding thirty-two feet in length. And any person or persons so offending against the provisions aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay a fine of ten dollars for each log, mast, spar or other timber of the length aforesaid, by him or them put into the Stream aforesaid, to be recovered by complaint before a Justice of the Peace, one half to the complainant and the other half to the use of the State,—Provided that this Act shall not take effect till sixty days after the passage thereof.

No lumber to be run over 32 ft. in length.

Penalty for a violation of this Act.
