void, unless the company shall determine to proceed with and complete another section within five years from the passage of this act.

First meeting—
how called.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That any three of the persons named in this act may call the first meeting of those incorporated, by causing notice to be given of the time, place and purpose thereof, in any newspaper printed in Thomaston, ten days at least before said meeting. And at said meeting they may proceed to organize said company; may adopt by-laws—and transact any other business which may regularly come before them.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That this act, in all legal proceedings shall be taken and deemed to be a public act.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That this act may be altered or amended at the pleasure of the Legislature.

Chapter 565.

AN ACT additional to an act to incorporate the city of Bangor.

Approved March 23, 1839.

Salary of Judge,
$400.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That from and after the first day of April next the salary of the Judge of the Municipal Court for the city of Bangor shall be four hundred dollars, instead of the salary now provided by law, to be paid in the same manner as provided in the act to which this is additional.

Fees.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the fees for a blank writ of attachment and summons thereon, or original summons, returnable to said Municipal Court shall be four cents, instead of the fees now allowed by law—and all other fees, in all cases civil and criminal, shall be the same as are taxable by Justices of the Peace instead of the fees allowed by the act establishing said Court.
