SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after the sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty, and that said bank shall publish for three months, weekly, in the State paper, and in one or more papers, if any there be, in the County, in which said bank may be located, that it has surrendered its charter stating the time when such surrender went into effect, and also the time when its liability to redeem its bills by law will expire.

Act to take effect April 6, 1840.

Surrender of the charter to be published 3 months in State paper, &c.

[Approved March 13, 1840.]

Chapter 58.

AN ACT in addition to the several Acts for the relief of Poor Debtors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That whenever any debtor shall stand committed on more than one execution at the same time, the keeper of the prison shall receive and be entitled to pay for board only on the first execution; and such board shall be paid for equally by all the creditors on whose executions such debtor shall be, or now is committed; and such creditor first committing, shall have a right of action against the other committing creditors for his proportion of such board, Provided, that if any debtor, standing committed on several executions, shall be discharged on one or more of them, it shall be the duty of the gaoler to give a new notice to the next committing creditor on whose execution such debtor may stand committed; of such discharge on the first execution, as is now by law provided.

Board of debtors committed on more than one execution to be paid for equally by the creditors.
