lative documents of that year, and they understand the same to be correct. They also received statements and explanations in regard thereto, from sources upon which they placed the utmost reliance; and have come to the unanimous conclusion that (waiving the question whether the transaction referred to is covered by the condition of the bond or not, of which there is much doubt) Mr. Cahoon acted in perfect good faith towards the State, and conducted the business with common prudence and discretion. They are also of the opinion that Mr. Goodwin and his successor used their best endeavors to collect the notes of Parker & Co. but without success; and that no blame is to be attached to either of them on account of the non-collection thereof. They therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying Resolve.

D. HAMMONS, per order.

Chapter 136.

RESOLVE in favor of James B. Cahoon and others.

Resolved, That no suit should be commenced against James B. Cahoon, as treasurer, and his sureties, on their bond, on account of the said Cahoon's taking the notes of Parker and company, in December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in part payment for one hundred seventy thousand dollars of Maine State stock negotiated with said Parker and company for the State, the said Cahoon having acted in perfect good faith towards the State, and in the opinion of this Legislature no blame or liability attaches to him on account of said negotiation.

No suit should be commenced against J. B. Cahoon, Treasurer, &c. on account of Parker & Co's notes.

—exonerated from blame or liability.

[Approved March 23, 1841.]

Chapter 137.

RESOLVE in aid of the deaf and dumb, and blind.

Resolved, That all, or any sums of money appropriated at the present session for the relief of the indigent deaf and dumb or blind, may by the Governor and Council, be applied in such proportions, as they may think proper, to both or either of those objects, and expended in whole or in part for the instruction and education of such indigent persons, according to the necessities of the applicants, and also for paying any sums now due and unpaid, for either of the above purposes.

[Approved March 23, 1841.]

Chapter 138.

RESOLVE in favor of Job Springer.

Resolved, That there be paid out of the treasury of this State, to Job Springer of Augusta, two dollars and sixty cents, it being the balance of his account against the State for bounty on wheat and corn, raised by him in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine. Job Springer, $2.60.
Wheat and corn bounty, 1839.

Approved March 27, 1841.

Chapter 139.

RESOLVE in favor of Rufus N. Sanborn and Eli Sanborn.

Resolved, That there be paid out of the treasury of the State, to Rufus N. Sanborn of Baldwin, the sum of one hundred dollars, and to Eli Sanborn of said Baldwin, the sum of seventy dollars, for injuries received by them while doing military duty in the service of the State. R. N. Sanborn, $100.
Eli Sanborn, $70.

[Approved March 30, 1841.]

Chapter 140.

RESOLVE in favor of John Jaquith.

Resolved, That there be paid out of the treasury of this State, to John Jaquith of Gardiner, the sum of twenty-five dollars, it being in full for expenses incurred by him through the sickness of his son, while in the service of the State in the Aroostook expedition. John Jaquith, $25.
Sickness of his son in the Aroostook expedition.

[Approved March 31, 1841.]
