Chapter 24.*CHAP. 24.

Resolve, additional, for the promulgation of the laws of the state.

Resolved, That there be allowed and paid to the publishers of each newspaper within this state, who shall publish and distribute to their subscribers the laws and resolves of a public nature, passed at each session of the legislature, as provided in the resolve passed February 11, 1832, chapter sixteen, and the resolve passed October 22, 1840, chapter one hundred and seven, the sum of five dollars; and the further sum of one dollar for every hundred copies so distributed, instead of the sum allowed by the resolve herein first mentioned; the number of the subscribers, as aforesaid, to be certified, under oath, by the said publishers, before the allowance of their accounts.

Compensation for publishing the public laws and resolves.

[Approved March 1, 1842.]

Chapter 25.

Resolve in favor of Henry Warren.

Resolved, That the land agent be authorized and directed to endorse on two notes now in the land office, signed by Asa Warren, bearing date January 14, 1835, of one hundred and twenty five dollars each, the sum of two hundred dollars, and interest after the eighth day of July 1835; which sum when endorsed, is to be in full of any amount, claimed by Henry Warren, of the state of Maine, for money paid the land agent in 1835, for lots numbers fifty seven and eighty five, in the city of Bangor, the title to which, when said Warren purchased, was not in the state of Maine. Provided, said Warren shall first release to the state all his right and interest to said land.

Land Agent authorized to endorse $200 on certain notes.

Proviso.

[Approved March 5, 1842.]

Chapter 26.

Resolve in favor of Oliver Frost.

Resolved, That the land agent be, and he hereby is, directed to release to Oliver Frost, all the right and interest, if any, which the state acquired in and to the west half of township number six, in the second range of townships, north of the Bingham Penobscot Purchase, by the operation of an act, passed the seventeenth of Land Agent authorized to release to Oliver Frost the state's interest in certain lands.

CHAP. 26.

Conditions of said release.

February 1836, entitled, "an act relative to the collection of state taxes, and assessments made by county commissioners," on the terms, and with the restrictions mentioned in this resolve. First, if any settler on said half township shall have acquired by any former owner or owners of said land, any right, title or interest to or in said land or any part thereof, by virtue of any deed, bond, or contract in writing, or by the occupation, or improvement of any lot for the term of six years, the said Frost shall release to such settler, the land claimed by him by virtue of his said deed, bond, contract, or improvement, on the payment by such settler of his proportion of the amount, which said Frost may have paid for or on account of said land and interest. Secondly, reserving to any person or persons, the right to redeem the residue of said land, or any portion thereof, of the said Frost, that he, or they, would have had, if the said land had not been forfeited to the state. Provided, that such person or persons shall pay to said Frost, in addition to the sum which he or they may pay to redeem said land as aforesaid, the sum which the said Frost, shall have paid to the treasurer of the state for the same, together with twenty per cent. interest on said last mentioned sum, from the time when the said Frost shall have paid the same. Thirdly, the said Frost shall first pay to the state treasurer, all sums due the state for taxes on said land, together with twenty per cent. interest thereon.

Proviso.

[Approved March 7, 1842.]
