CHAP. 62.Chapter 62.

AN ACT additional to an act to incorporate the trustees of Bethel academy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Bethel academy to be called Gould's academy

SECT. 1. The trustees of Bethel academy are hereby authorized to take, and shall be hereafter known by, the corporate name of the trustees of Gould's academy in Bethel, in substitution of the name and style by which they are now called and known.

Privileges and rights secured.

SECT. 2. The said trustees shall be entitled to, and are hereby secured in, all the rights, privileges and immunities, and shall be subject to all the liabilities and duties, under the name and style of the trustees of Gould's academy in Bethel, as they have heretofore enjoyed and been subject to, by virtue of any and all the provisions of the act to which this act is in addition.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect from after its approval by the governor.

[Approved February 3, 1843.]

Chapter 63.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Mason.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Town of Mason

How formed.

SECT. 1. That Fryeburg academy plantation in the county of Oxford, bounded as follows, to wit: beginning on the west line of Bethel on the disputed line between Gilead and the said plantation, and thence running south seventy degrees west to the top of Cariboo mountain, thence on the ridge or crest of said mountain to the first division line in Bachelder's grant, as surveyed and marked by Jason Sherman, thence southerly on said first division line to the town of Usher, thence on said Usher to Albany, thence on said Albany to the south west corner of Bethel and thence on said Bethel to the place of beginning, with the inhabitants thereof, be, and the same are hereby, incorporated into a town by the name of Mason: and the inhabitants of said town are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities, which the inhabitants of other towns within this State do or may by law enjoy.

Town meeting—
how called.

SECT. 2. Any justice of the peace within said county is hereby empowered to issue his warrant to some inhabitant of said town, directing him to notify the inhabitants thereof to meet at such time
