AUGUSTA:

WM. T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1845.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1845.

CHAP. 147.Chapter 147.

AN ACT making further provisions to contract for the keeping of the poor in the several towns in the state.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Keeping of poor of towns; how provided for.

Any town, at the annual meeting in March or April, by due notice being inserted in the town warrant, may contract for the keeping of the poor of the town, for any term of time, not exceeding five years. All such contracts shall be subject to the provisions relative to town paupers, made in the fifth section of the thirty-second chapter of the revised statutes.

[Approved March 24, 1845.]

Chapter 148.

AN ACT additional regulating the fees of the clerks of the judicial courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Fee for writ of replevin.

The clerks of the judicial courts shall be entitled to receive for each blank writ of replevin, with the seal, signature, and blank bond, whether of the supreme or district court, the sum of eight cents, instead of the sum now allowed by law.

[Approved March 24, 1845.]

Chapter 149.

AN ACT additional to an act entitled an act additional to an act in relation to the public lands.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

County commissioners authorized to grant permits for cutting timber on certain reserved lots.

The county commissioners of the several counties, are hereby authorized to grant permits for cutting timber on any of the lots, reserved for public uses, in unincorporated timber townships, in their respective counties, not to exceed a permit for one six ox team on any one lot in each year. The said permits shall be granted by public auction, to the highest bidder, after giving notice of time and place of sale in the state paper, three weeks successively, the last publication to be twenty days before said sale. And the proceeds of said permits shall be disposed of in the same manner and for the same purposes, as is provided for the proceeds of the sales of grass cut on said public lots.

[Approved March 26, 1845.]
