CHAP. 158.

compose a part of the eastern probate district, in the county of Lincoln. And all acts and parts of acts contrary to the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 4, 1845.]

Chapter 158.

AN ADDITIONAL ACT to regulate the survey of lumber in the county of Penobscot.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Certain provisions of an act of March 22, 1844, relative to numerical marks on lumber repealed.

SECT. 1. So much of "an act in addition to an act to regulate the survey of lumber in the county of Penobscot, passed March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-four," as requires the numerical mark, showing the particular sort or quality to which it belongs, to be placed on each piece of lumber is hereby repealed; and the fifth section of an act to regulate the survey of lumber in the county of Penobscot, passed March second, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, requiring such numerical mark to be placed thereon, if requested by the buyer or seller, is hereby revived and re-enacted.

Provisions of act of March 2, 1833, revived.

SECT. 2. Instead of the fees provided in the third section of said act passed March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-four, the following rates are hereby established, viz: for all lumber surveyed without placing the numerical mark on each piece, eleven cents per thousand feet board measure, and if the numerical mark is placed thereon, at the request of the buyer or seller, an additional fee of seven cents per thousand feet shall be paid. And whenever said survey or survey and marking shall be done by a deputy of the surveyor general he shall pay to the surveyor general one cent per thousand feet, board measure. So much of the third section of the act aforesaid, passed March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-four, as is inconsistent with the provisions of this act is hereby repealed.

Rates of fees established.

Inconsistent acts and provisions repealed.

[Approved April 4, 1845.]
