PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1845.

CHAP. 194.

Division of tax between Whitneyville and Machias.

SECT. 3. Until another apportionment of state tax shall be made by the legislature, the said inhabitants and estates of Whitneyville shall be held to pay two ninth parts of such state and county taxes, as before this act was passed, would be assessed to the town of Machias; and the town last mentioned shall be held to pay the other seven ninth parts.

Senatorial and representative district.

SECT. 4. Until otherwise provided by law, the said inhabitants of Whitneyville shall remain in the same district, for election of senators and representatives, for the state legislature, in which the town of Machias now is.

First meeting, how called.

SECT. 5. Any justice of the peace, in and for the county of Washington, may call the first town meeting of said town of Whitneyville, for the choice of town officers, and also for other business usually transacted at annual town meetings, by posting up notices thereof in two public places in said town, seven days before such meetings, which notices shall state the time, place and purposes of such meeting; and the same justice of the peace shall preside at such meeting until a moderator shall be, by ballot, chosen.

[Approved February 10, 1845.]

Chapter 194.

AN ACT to set off Great island from Rome to Belgrade in the county of Kennebec.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Great island set off to Belgrade.

SECT. 1. That from and after the passage of this act all that part of Rome known as Great island, and situated in what is called Great pond, together with the inhabitants thereon, shall be set off to and become a part of the town of Belgrade, in the county of Kennebec.

To pay to Rome their proportion of debts.

SECT. 2. The inhabitants of Great island shall be holden to pay to the town of Rome such proportion of the debts now owing by said town, after deducting therefrom all debts due said town, as the last annual valuation of the inhabitants of said Great island shall bear to the last annual valuation of the inhabitants of said town of Rome.

Inconsistent acts and parts of acts repealed.

SECT. 3. That all acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved February 10, 1845.]
