AN ACT to incorporate the Proprietors of the Bath New Church Temple.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Zina Hyde, William D. Sewall and John B. Swanton, with their associates, who are, or may become, proprietors or owners of pews in the house of worship in Bath, called the New Church Temple, so long as they shall remain proprietors or owners Corporators.

as aforesaid, are incorporated by the name of Proprietors of the New Church Temple, in Bath; with all the powers incident to parishes, except in regard to taxation; any two of whom may call the first meeting by posting notice thereof, on the outer door of said house seven days previous to said meeting.

SECT. 2. Said corporation shall have power to levy taxes on said pews for the purpose of repairing and improving their house and lot only.

SECT. 3. Said proprietors may take, hold and use, also, a parsonage house and lot and a school house; but shall not raise money therefor, nor expend it thereon, beyond the income thereof and donations therefor.

SECT. 4. By a vote of two thirds they may sell their real estate, or any part thereof; and the net proceeds of such sales, after payment of debts, shall be divided amongst the owners of pews, in the proportion of their valuation in the assessment made last before such sale.

SECT. 5. Until such sale, said house shall be held for the use of the New Jerusalem Church in Bath.

SECT. 6. In all meetings of said corporation, each proprietor shall be entitled to one vote for each pew owned by him; but no proprietor shall be entitled to more than three votes.

[Approved March 17, 1845.]
