Chapter 283.

AN ACT additional to an act entitled "an act to establish the Augusta Free Bridge."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

That "an act to establish the Augusta Free Bridge," passed March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, is hereby revived, and the rights and powers conferred by said act, upon the corporators therein named, their successors and assigns, to purchase the Kennebec Bridge or to erect a new bridge across the Kennebec river, are hereby conferred upon them for the term of five years, from and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and forty-five: provided, that, in the construction of said bridge, no more than one pier shall be erected, and said pier shall be placed as near as may be in the centre of the river, and in such a position in reference to the pier of the Kennebec Bridge as to preserve, as far as is practicable, the free navigation of the river at this point for boats and rafting; and the height of said bridge, from the water, shall be as great as the Kennebec bridge; and in the erection of the eastern abutment it shall be so constructed as to leave a sufficient space for towing, between said abutment and ordinary high water mark.

Act of March 23, 1838, revived for five years.

Proviso.

[Approved April 7, 1845.]
