CHAP. 347.

Chapter 347.

Resolve authorizing Ebenezer Hale and wife to sell certain real estate in Deer Isle.

In favor of E.
Hale and wife.
Authorized to sell certain real estate.

Boundaries.

Proceeds of sale
to be deposited in the hands of trustees.

Proviso.

Resolved, for reasons set forth in said petition, that the said Ebenezer Hale and Sarah White Hale, wife of said Ebenezer, be, and they hereby are, authorized and empowered to sell, at public or at private sale, at their discretion, and convey the real estate herein-after described, situate in Deer Isle, in the county of Hancock, and state of Maine, aforesaid, and bounded as follows, viz: one tract or lot bounded westerly on Penobscot bay; northeasterly and south-westerly on land formerly of Ignatius Haskell, esquire; and south-westerly on the county road, containing twenty-seven acres more or less. Also one other tract or lot bounded northerly on Penobscot bay; easterly and southerly on land now or late of John Howard; and westerly on land formerly of William Eaton; containing fifty acres more or less; and, after deducting from the proceeds of said sale the amount of disbursements on said land for taxes and otherwise, beyond the income therefrom, to be ascertained and decided by the judge of probate within and for the county of Essex, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the said Ebenezer and Sarah shall deposit the balance of the proceeds of said sale, in the hands of the trustees appointed in and by the last will and testament of Moses Brown, esquire, late of Newburyport, in the county of Essex, aforesaid, deceased; in and by which will the said premises are devised to the said Sarah; to be invested by the said trustees and kept by them and their successors in said office, distinct and separate from all other funds in their hands, to the same uses and ultimate disposal, as is provided in and by the will of the said Moses Brown, respecting the real estate herein above described: provided however, that the said Ebenezer and Sarah, together with the said trustees, shall first give bonds to the judge of probate, in and for the county of Essex, aforesaid, to the satisfaction of the said judge, that they the said Ebenezer and Sarah, and they the said trustees, shall faithfully, and according to their best discretion, execute and discharge the authority and duties hereby conferred and enjoined.
