TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

A. D. 1846.

Published by the Secretary of State, agreeably to Resolves of June 28, 1820, February 26, 1840, and March 16, 1842.

Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON,.....PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1846.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1846.

Chapter 211.CHAP. 211.

An Act to amend the thirty-second chapter of the revised statutes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

So much of the thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth and forty-first sections of the thirty-second chapter of the revised statutes as provided for the removal of persons likely to become chargeable to the places of their lawful settlement, are hereby repealed : provided, that said repeal shall not affect any processes, or proceedings now pending before any justice of the peace or the district or supreme judicial court, or any rights acquired under the said sections repealed by this act.

§ 35, 36, 37, 38,
39, 40 and 41, repealed.

Proviso.

[Approved August 8, 1846.]

Chapter 212.

An Act additional to the one hundred and sixty-first chapter of the statutes of the year eighteen hundred and forty-five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

If a principal who has been twice surrendered by his bail, under the provisions of the act to which this is additional, shall be again released upon bail in the same case, the bail upon such second or any subsequent recognizance, shall not be entitled to the benefit of said act.

On forfeiture of recognizance in criminal cases,
bail not to be discharged in certain cases.

[Approved August 10, 1846.]

Chapter 213.

An Act to amend the fifty-first chapter of the revised statutes, relating to lime and lime casks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECTION 1. No lime manufactured in this state shall be sold, exposed to sale, or shipped on board any vessel in casks, but such only as shall be well burnt and pure, and contained in good and sufficient casks, made of sound and seasoned staves and heading, with at least ten good and strong hoops on each cask, well driven and secured with nails and duly inspected ; the staves of said casks to be made of sawed or rift timber, not less than thirty inches in length, and not less than one half of an inch thick on the thinnest edge ; and each of the heads to be not less than three-fourths of an inch thick, and well crozed in ; and each hoop to be not less than one inch wide in the narrowest part ; and each cask to be not less than twenty-six inches in length between the heads, and sixteen inches in width between the chimes, and not less than eighteen inches in the clear on the inside at the bilge at the time of inspection ; and made in a workmanlike manner to hold lime :

Casks to be branded with the name of the manufacturer.

SECT. 2. Before any lime is inspected, the manufacturer thereof shall brand on the head of each cask in a legible manner, the first letter of his christian name and the surname at length, with the letters "man'r."

Penalty for selling lime in casks
not legally made,
marked, branded
and inspected.

SECT. 3. If any manufacturer shall sell or expose to sale any lime in casks, other than such as is contained in casks, made, marked, branded and inspected according to the provisions of this act, and the chapter of the revised statutes to which this is additional, he shall forfeit one dollar for each cask so sold or exposed to sale, to any person who shall sue for the same ; and shall also be liable to pay any person injured for any defect in the quantity and quality of the lime sold or exposed to sale by him, or for any evasion or violation of the provisions of this act and the act to which this is additional, in the same manner as inspectors of lime or their deputies are now liable ; and the action for the recovery of damages may be commenced against the manufacturer, inspector or deputy inspector, at the election of the party injured.

How recovered.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Proviso.

SECT. 4. The ninth section of the fifty-first chapter of the revised statutes and an act amending said section, approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and forty-four, are hereby repealed: provided, however, that so much of this bill as relates to the thickness of the staves, shall not go into operation until the first day of January next.

[Approved August 10, 1846.]

Chapter 214.

An Act changing the times of holding the terms of the supreme judicial court.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Altering the
the terms of the
S. J. court.

SECTION 1. The supreme judicial court shall be holden pursuant to the provisions contained in the twelfth section of the ninety-sixth chapter of the revised statutes, at the several times and places
