Chapter 327.

An Act to authorize the inhabitants of the town of Orono to make a contract with the proprietors of the Stillwater Bridge.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Inhabitants of Orono authorized to contract for the removal of
Stillwater bridge,
or for the erection of a new bridge.

SECTION 1. The inhabitants of the town of Orono are hereby authorized to make and enter into a contract with the proprietors of the Stillwater Bridge, a corporation established by law, for the removal of the bridge of said corporation from the place where it now stands to such place nearer the mouth of the Stillwater river, and within the limits of the charter of said corporation, as the parties shall mutually agree upon ; or for the building of a new bridge at such place, by said corporation : provided, however, that no contract shall be binding on said town unless it be accepted and approved by the inhabitants thereof, at a legal meeting called for that purpose.

Contract not binding upon the town, unless accepted, at a legal meeting, called
for that purpose.

Said town authorized to contract
for the free pass-
age of its inhabitants over Stillwater bridge.

SECT. 2. The said town is also authorized to make such contract with the said corporation, as may be deemed expedient and necessary to secure to the inhabitants thereof, the right to pass over the bridge of said corporation free of toll.

[Approved June 30, 1846.]
