OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1846.

CHAP. 350.

the best advantage, and the annual income thereof, together with the amount and contributions, which shall be made to the said society shall be applied, annually, to the assistance of such young men in their education for the ministry, as the society shall determine to be fit subjects therefor.

May sell real estate and invest in funds, or apply their personal estate to the purchase of real estate.

SECT. 5. The said society when they shall deem it most for their advantage may sell and dispose of, in fee simple or otherwise, all or any of the real estate belonging to them and invest the same in funds, or may apply their personal estate to the purchase of real estate, and the income of said real or personal estate shall be applied to the objects for which said estate was given.

Deeds, grants, &c., how made and executed.

SECT. 6. All deeds, grants, covenants and agreements, to be made for and in behalf of said society, shall be executed under the common seal of the same, and signed by the president and secretary.

[Approved July 20, 1846.]

Chapter 350.

An additional Act to incorporate the city of Portland.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Authorized to prohibit the erection of bowling alleys.

That the mayor, aldermen and common council of the city of Portland, in council assembled, be and are hereby authorized and empowered wholly to prohibit the erection of bowling alleys within said city, or to impose upon them such conditions and restrictions, not inconsistent with the constitution of this state, as in their opinion the public interest may require.

[Approved July 22, 1846.]

Chapter 351.

An Act to authorize the town of Trecott to maintain a road and bridge over tide waters.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Selectmen of Trecott authorized to lay out a road and bridge over tide waters.

SECTION 1. Any disability or want of authority in the county commissioners of the county of Washington to establish a county road or of the selectmen of the town of Trecott in said county to lay out, and of said town to accept and establish a town way and to maintain, erect, repair and rebuild a bridge across tide waters in said town at a place called Bell's mill where the bridge now stands, is hereby removed, and said town shall have the same authority to raise money for the purpose of maintaining, erecting, repairing or rebuilding a bridge over tide waters at that place as they have or may hereafter have by law for the purpose of building or repairing town or county roads, and said bridge shall be in all respects a part of the road which is or shall be established over said tide waters.

Location.

SECT. 2. No doings of the county commissioners of the county of Washington or of said town or the selectmen thereof heretofore done in regard to said road or bridge, shall be in any wise considered invalid or illegal in consequence of said road and bridge being established over tide waters.

Nothing heretofore done in regard to said road, considered illegal in consequence of its passing over tide waters.

SECT. 3. A space not less than thirty-five feet in width under said bridge over the deepest part of the water shall be left free and unobstructed for the passage of rafts and boats.

Space under said bridge to be left free for the passage of rafts and lumber.

SECT. 4. All persons damaged by any doings under and by virtue of this act shall have the same remedy as is provided by law for the recovery of damages occasioned by the laying out town or county roads.

Damages.

[Approved July 25, 1846.]
