amount assessed upon each mark. And all owners of logs and other timber, shall be required to pay or satisfactorily secure the amount of their several assessments, within thirty days from the date of such assessment. And the treasurer shall have power to take possession of a sufficient quantity of any and all marks of logs and other timber upon which the assessment has not been paid or secured at the end of thirty days from such assessment, and shall retain possession of the same until disposed of as hereinafter provided, and all marks upon which such assessment shall not be thus paid or secured within the time herein specified, shall be advertised two weeks in succession in some newspaper printed in said Bangor, and if not paid within ten days after the last publication, with necessary costs and expenses, the treasurer shall then advertise them for sale at public auction, by posting up in some conspicuous place in Bangor and Oldtown, notices of such sale, with a list of all the marks, and the amount of assessment upon each mark, ten days before the day of sale, and unless such assessments with expenses incurred are previously paid, he shall then proceed to sell to the highest bidder, a sufficient quantity of the logs or other timber of the different marks upon the list, to pay such assessments with all proper costs and expenses, selling each mark separately. The place of sale to be at the office of the company, and the proceeds of all sales to be paid into the treasury of the company. And the lien hereby created shall have precedence of all other liens; provided, however, if before the sale, it should be ascertained that the logs or other timber of any particular mark or marks had not arrived at their places of destination, but remained back, that in such case said sale may be adjourned from time to time until such logs or other timber shall arrive at said place of destination.
