and March 16, 1842.

Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON,.....PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1846.

RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1846.

Resolved, That the secretary of state shall prepare and furnish CHAP. 480. the several cities, towns and plantations, blank returns in conformity to the foregoing resolve, accompanied with a copy of these resolves.

[Approved August 8, 1846.]

Chapter 480.

Resolve in favor of Moses Hammond.

Resolved, That there be paid out of the treasury of the state, to Moses Hammond of Paris, the sum of two hundred and sixty-five dollars, for his expenses in procuring the attendance of witnesses, and other expenses in behalf of the state, in a prosecution, the state against Isaiah Willis (for altering and publishing a forged deed) in the preliminary investigation of the case, and in the trial in the supreme court for the county of Oxford, at the October term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

In favor of Moses Hammond.

[Approved August 8, 1846.]

Chapter 481.

Resolve explanatory of, and additional to, a resolve, entitled "resolve to quiet certain settlers, and obtain a title to certain lands, sold and claimed by the state," approved July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

Whereas said resolve imposes an obligation on the proprietors of Orland to procure a deed of release with covenants of warranty from all persons under them, of all lands lying east of the west line of the town of Ellsworth in which is comprised a small quantity estimated at about eighty acres adjoining the southeasterly part of said line of Ellsworth, which has heretofore passed out of the hands of the proprietors, and which they may be unable to reclaim; none of which is under improvement, nor included in that for which suits have been commenced, therefore;

Explanatory of and additional to resolve to quiet certain settlers, &c.

Resolved, For the purpose of settling the existing controversy and to enable the proprietors to comply with the conditions of said resolve, that in the event of a failure on the part of the proprietors to furnish the state with a sufficient deed of that portion of the land above described, or any part of the same, that there shall be deducted from the amount authorized to be paid by the resolve to which this is additional, such sum as may be equal in value to that
