ACTS AND RESOLVES

PASSED BY THE

TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

A. D. 1847.

Published by the Secretary of State, agreeably to Resolves of June 28, 1820, February 26, 1840, and March 16, 1842.

Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1847.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1847.

CHAP. 3.

Chapter 3.

An act additional in relation to the powers of coroners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

To administer the necessary oaths to appraisers of real estate.

The coroners in the several counties in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the necessary oaths to appraisers of real estate, to be by them set off on execution; and it shall be the duty of coroners in such cases to administer said oaths without taxing any fees therefor.

[Approved June 12, 1847.]

Chapter 4.

An act to repeal the proviso in the fifth section of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight of the revised statutes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Proviso of sect. 5, chap. 128, R. S., repealed.

The proviso in the fifth section of the one hundred and twenty-eighth chapter of the revised statutes, in the words following: “provided, he shall not have been in quiet possession of the premises three whole years, next preceding the filing of such complaint,” is hereby repealed.

[Approved June 21, 1847.]

Chapter 5.

An act to amend the one hundred and fifth chapter of the revised statutes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sect. 39, chap. 105, R. S., amended.

The one hundred and fifth chapter of the revised statutes, shall be amended in section thirty-nine, by inserting after the word “decease,” the words “excepting it shall appear satisfactorily to the judge of probate that there are any moneys due to the estate of said deceased from the government of the United States, which can be received or recovered in no other mode than by granting such administration;” so that the first clause in said section as amended, shall be as follows:

Cases in which no probate nor administration shall be granted.

SECT. 39. No probate of any last will, nor administration on the estate of any person deceased, shall be originally granted after
