Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1847.

PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1847.

CHAP. 82.Chapter 82.

An act to authorize the proprietors of the first congregational meeting house in Lubec, to sell the same.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Proprietors authorized to sell first congregational meeting house in Lubec.

The proprietors of the first congregational meeting house in Lubec are hereby authorized and empowered at any legal meeting by a majority vote of said proprietors, to sell and convey said house and the land attached to the same, in such manner as they shall direct. Previous to the time of such sale said proprietors shall cause the relative value of the pews of said meeting house and the land attached to the same, to be appraised by three disinterested men, and the proceeds of such sale shall be divided among the pew owners of said meeting house according to said appraisal.

Pews and land to be appraised previous to sale.

Proceeds of sale, how divided.

[Approved July 31, 1847.]

Chapter 83.

An act authorizing the county commissioners of the county of Lincoln to lay out a road over tide waters.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Location.

The county commissioners for the county of Lincoln are hereby authorized and empowered to lay out and establish a road over tide waters, between the foot of Damariscotta pond and the "Salt Bay," so called, in the towns of Nobleborough and Newcastle, with the additional power of directing the height the bridge shall be built and the width of the sluice or passage way for boats, and so forth under the same. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.
