TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

A. D. 1848.

Published by the Secretary of State, agreeably to Resolves of June 28, 1820, February 26, 1840, and March 16, 1842.

Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1848.

CHAP. 58.

or destroyed, and to proceed in said action in the same manner as if the original writ had been preserved.

When new execution may be issued.

SECT. 2. When it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of either of the justices of any court in this state, by the affidavit of a creditor, his attorney or otherwise, that any execution issued from the office of the clerk of such court, has been accidentally lost or destroyed, which execution was unsatisfied in whole or in part, it shall be the duty of said justice of said court to direct the clerk thereof, to issue a new execution, for the amount ascertained to be due, in the same manner as if the execution so lost or destroyed had been duly returned, unsatisfied in whole or in part.

[Approved August 8, 1848.]

Chapter 58.

An act for the regulation of bowling alleys.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Power of mayor and aldermen, selectmen and assessors.

That the mayor and aldermen of the several cities, selectmen of towns, and the assessors of plantations, in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to impose upon all bowling alleys within their corporate limits, such conditions and restrictions, not inconsistent with the constitution of this state, as in their opinion the public interest may require.

[Approved August 8, 1848.]

Chapter 59.

An act to authorize certain persons to prosecute and defend suits.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

In case of the death of a sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or constable, pending an action in favor of or against such officer, the party for whom he acted may prosecute and defend said suit in his own name.

In any action which is now or hereafter may be pending in the supreme judicial court, district court, or before any judge of a municipal court, or any justice of the peace, in favor of or against any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or constable, to enforce any right, or for any act done in virtue of any precept directed to either of said officers, in case of the death of any
