Published by the Secretary of State, agreeably to Resolves of June 28, 1820, February 26, 1840, and March 16, 1842.

Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1848.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1848.

Chapter 63.

CHAP. 63.

An act additional in relation to hawkers and pedlers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Any person who shall hereafter travel from town to town, or place to place in this state, whether on foot or with any carriage drawn by one or more horses or other animals, or by steamboat, rail road, stage coach, or other public or private conveyance for the purpose of vending any goods, wares or merchandise, not manufactured in this state, shall be subject to all the requirements and provisions and liable to all the penalties and forfeitures contained in and prescribed by the act relating to hawkers and pedlers, approved July thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, although such person may have, for the time being, an established place of business in such towns or places, unless he shall continue to occupy such place of business more than four weeks successively in each town or place.

Liability of persons, traveling for the sale of goods, not manufactured in this state, and not occupying a place of business more than four weeks in such place.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved August 8, 1848.]

Chapter 64.

An act relating to corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, excepting corporations for literary and benevolent purposes, banking, and such as by the common law are termed quasi corporations, within this state, to make any division of the corporate funds, or property belonging to such corporation, so as to reduce the stock of such corporation below par value, except to close up the concerns of such corporation after all its debts are paid.

Unlawful for certain corporations to make division of their property so as to reduce their stock below par value.

SECT. 2. In all cases where any corporation, as aforesaid, has heretofore made, or shall, hereafter, make any such division of the corporate property, or funds, or of any portion thereof, and in all cases where such corporation has corporate property of any kind which is undivided, and which cannot be come at readily to be attached, or which is not attachable, any judgment Remedy of judgment creditor or creditors in such case, where such corporation has undivided corporate property of any kind.
