CHAP. 159.

Chapter 159.

An act granting W. W. Thomas the right of redeeming township number five, range five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

That William W. Thomas, of Portland, the proprietor of township number five, in the fifth range of townships in the county of Aroostook, now forfeited to the state for the non-payment of taxes, may redeem the same, by paying into the treasury the sum of fifty-five dollars, being the amount of a road tax on said township, for which the same is forfeited, together with six per cent. interest on said sum, at any time prior to the first of January next, and such payment being made as aforesaid, the right and interest of said Thomas to said township shall be the same as it would have been had no such forfeiture occurred. This act shall take effect from and after its approval.

Right to redeem said township extended to Jan. 1, 1849.

[Approved August 8, 1848.]

Chapter 160.

An act to change the name of the town of Mansel.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

From and after the passage of this act the town of Mansel, in the county of Hancock, shall be known and called by the name of "Tremont," any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tremont.

[Approved August 8, 1848.]
