Augusta:

WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1848.

Снар. 162.

Chapter 162.

An act additional to an act entitled "an act to incorporate the South Bay Meadow Dam Company," passed in the year of our Lord one thousand eighthundred and forty-six.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Shall construct a lock and clear the stream. SECT. 1. The South Bay Meadow Dam Company shall construct in the dam authorized to be built by the act to which this is additional, a sufficient gate or lock to allow the passage of any vessel or boat that could have passed out or into the bay above said dam, before the building thereof; and said company shall clear out the stream above said dam so that any craft may navigate the same which could have passed or repassed thereon before said dam was constructed.

Complaints determined by co. commissioners. SECT. 2. The county commissioners for the county of Hancock, may hear and determine any complaint made against said company for not complying with the requirements of this act and may make such decrees and orders thereon as may be necessary and just, to enforce the provisions thereof.

Person to tend

Sect. 3. It shall be the duty of said company, to provide some person or persons to tend the gate or lock required to be built by the first section of this act, so that all vessels, boats, rafts and other water crafts, which could pass up such stream before the erection of said dam, may pass said dam without unnecessary delay.

[Approved August 10, 1848.]
