OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1849.

Chapter 117.

CHAP. 117.

An act respecting judicial proceedings.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. In all cases under the trustee process in the supreme judicial court where exceptions are taken to the ruling and decision of a single judge, as to the liability of the party summoned as such to be charged or not, as trustee of the principal defendant, the whole case, both as to fact and law, may be re-examined and determined by the full court, when in the opinion of the court justice shall require.

When cases under the trustee process in S. J. court may be re-examined by the full court.

SECT. 2. In all cases under the trustee process, when the disclosure is made in the district court, and the case transferred to the supreme judicial court by exceptions taken to the ruling and decision of the district judge, the whole matter as to the liability of the supposed trustee, embracing the fact and the law, may be there re-examined and determined by the full court when in the discretion of the court, justice shall require.

When disclosure is made in the D. C. and the case transferred to the S. J. C. by exceptions taken.
