PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1850.

---

CHAP. 190.

Description.

other equally fusible material, and to be of a diameter of not less than one-half an inch, which plug shall be placed in the roof of the fire-box, when a fire-box is used; and, in all cases, shall be placed in a part of the boiler fully exposed to the action of the fire, and as near the top of the water-line as any part of the fire surface of the boiler; and for this purpose, it shall be lawful to use Ashcroft's "protected safety fusible plug."

Penalty for removing such plug, or substituting a different material.

SECT. 2. If any person shall, without just and proper cause, remove from the boiler the safety plug thereof, or shall substitute therefor any material more capable of resisting the action of the fire than the said safety plug so removed, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Penalty for using steam boiler unprovided with such plug.

SECT. 3. If any person or corporation shall use, or cause to be used, in this state, for the space of six consecutive days, a steam-boiler unprovided with a safety fusible plug, as named in the first section, such person or corporation so offending, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

[Approved August 26, 1850.]

Chapter 190.

An act additional for the assessment and collection of taxes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Taxes on cattle, sheep or swine, belonging to non-residents, how collected.

When the owner or possessor of horses, mules, neat cattle, sheep or swine, resides in any other town, city or plantation than the one in which said animals are kept, the constable or collector to whom any assessment on such animals shall be committed for collection, with a legal warrant, may demand the same of such owner in any part of the state, and, upon his refusal to pay the same, may distrain such person by his goods, and for want thereof may commit him to the common jail of the county where he may be found, there to be detained until such tax shall be paid, or he be thence delivered by due course of law.

[Approved August 26, 1850.]
