1850.

PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1850.

CHAP. 330.

by said bank on said additional capital, whenever the directors or a majority of them, together with the cashier, shall have signed, and certified by oath, and filed in the office of the secretary of state a certificate that said additional capital has been actually paid in.

[Approved July 22, 1850.]

Chapter 330.

An act additional to the several acts incorporating the city of Portland.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Appeal from the city council of Portland, when made, &c.

SECT. 1. The appeal from any decision or judgment of the city council of Portland, relative to damages sustained in the laying out of streets in said city, provided for in the sixth section of the act to incorporate the city of Portland, may be made to the term of the district court, in the county of Cumberland, or of such court as may be vested with the general powers of such court, and established in place thereof, which shall first be holden more than thirty days after any street may be finally accepted and established by said city council, excluding from the computation of said thirty days, the day on which said street shall be so accepted, and the day on which said court may commence its session.

Notice to be served on said city fourteen days prior to the sitting of said court.

SECT. 2. Said court shall take no jurisdiction of said appeal, unless the appellant shall serve a written notice thereof upon the city clerk, or if there is no city clerk, upon the mayor or treasurer of said city, fourteen days at least before the session of said court. And the appellant shall file his complaint in said court, setting forth substantially all the facts necessary to a full understanding of his case, at the first term of said court; and the said court shall proceed to hear and determine the same, as provided for in the said sixth section of the aforesaid act: and any party aggrieved by any ruling or decision of said court, upon any question of law, arising on the trial of any such appeal, may have his exceptions thereto, in the manner and under the restrictions, provided for other cases of exceptions to the rulings and decisions of said court.

Certificate to be filed in said court, &c.

Exceptions filed upon questions of law.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved July 23, 1850.]
