Chapter 400.

An act to incorporate the Milltown Aqueduct Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

SECT. 1. R. O. Stickney, John Stickney, C. C. P. Peabody, David Pineo, James Kimball, Tinker Twitchell, William Kelley, William Sherman and Benjamin Stoddard, their associates and successors be and hereby are made a corporation by the Corporate name.

name of the Milltown Aqueduct Company for the purpose of keeping in repair, rebuilding and regulating the use of the aqueduct already built in said Milltown in the town of Calais, so as to make the same the most useful for the purpose of supplying with water for domestic use, those interested therein.

May sue, &c.

SECT. 2. Said corporation may sue and be sued and make such officers and by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be necessary for the purpose of this act.

Persons suffering damages, compensation for.

SECT. 3. Any person who has suffered or may hereafter suffer any damage by the building, repairing, or management of said aqueduct, shall be compensated therefor by said corporation. If the parties cannot agree upon the amount of damages, the same shall be estimated by the county commissioners on the application of the person damaged within two years from the time such damage accrued or shall accrue, and in default of payment of damages when so ascertained, the members of said corporation for the time being shall be personally liable for the same in an action of the case.

In case of disagreement, how adjusted.

First meeting, how called.

SECT. 4. Any three of the persons mentioned in this act may call the first meeting of said corporation, by giving public notice thereof in the village of Milltown four days.

Contributors entitled to use of aqueduct.

SECT. 5. All persons who have contributed, or whose assignors contributed to the building of this aqueduct, shall be entitled to protection in a reasonable use of said aqueduct, whether incorporated herein or not, provided such persons shall be liable to a reasonable share of the expense of said aqueduct.
