deem it advisable to lay before them, as to the advantages of the route through Maine proposed for the European and North American Railway for securing the most rapid means of communication between Europe and America, and to invite such co-operation on the part of the general government in aid of the same as the interests of Maine may require.

[Approved August 28, 1850.]

Chapter 302.

Resolve in favor of Sarah T. Webber.

Resolved, That the treasurer of state is hereby authorized and directed, to pay out of the treasury of the state, to Sarah T. Webber or her order, such sum as the committee on the pay roll, may allow and make up, for service and travel of Thomas M. Webber, late member of this house.

Sarah T. Webber.
